

DICIM 2009

The Dutch International Congress on Insurance Medicine

Call for abstracts

In 2009 the Dutch Society for Insurance Medicine (NVVG) and the Dutch Association of Medical Officers in Private Insurances (GAV) organise a two day congress, with one International day in English. The congress is intended for medical officers, insurance medical officers public insurances, occupation health physicians and others interested in this particular field.

The organizing Committee invites you to submit abstracts for a podium or poster presentation at our congress, to be held in the Netherlands, on November 12th, 2009 (International day).

Abstracts for podium and poster presentations should focus on the topic of insurance medicine. Clinical topics with insurance medicine aspects are also welcome.

Abstracts should be no longer than 400 words and will be juried. Submissions will be accepted up to the deadline of June 1, 2009. Authors will be notified of the status of their acceptance on or before July 1, 2009. Podium presentations will be 30 minutes in length. Selected authors will be offered free congress attendance and accommodation.

Abstracts for the DICIM 2009 will only be accepted online. Please email your abstract to abstracts@vgdagen.nl.
